

SR. GUSTAVO ZERBINO

Gustavo Zerbino Stajano

He is a happy person, who thanks every day to be alive, 6 children, 4 boys (30, 27, 24, 22 yrs old) and 2 women (20 and 12 yrs old). He is Director of Cibeles SA Company, leader in Animal, Plant and Human Health, representative of Merck Sharp & Dohme, worldwide leader in pharmaceutical industry.

He is at present President of the Chamber of Pharmaceutical Products of Uruguay (CEFA), which gathers the multinational laboratories installed in the country.

Former President of the Rugby Union of Uruguay.

Member of UNICEF Uruguayan Advisory Board.

Vice President of the Rugby Without Borders Foundation which organizes high level impact actions at world level, some of them aligned with Pope Francis and Scholas Foundation, promoting values such as Peace, Respect and Solidarity so necessary in today's world.

For the past 20 years he has given motivational conferences at international level at Universities and top companies on "Leadership and Management of Adversity".

He is one of the survivors of the Andes airplane crash in 1972 (Film and Book "Alive")